

A-Mark Precious Metals Renews $275 Million Credit Facility

August 18, 2017 4:05 PM ET

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., Aug. 18, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- A-Mark Precious Metals, Inc. (NASDAQ:AMRK), (“A-Mark”), a full-service precious metals trading company and an official distributor for all the major sovereign mints, has renewed its syndicated line of credit, led by Administrative Agent Cooperatieve Rabobank U.A. (“Rabobank”) with access of up to $275 million, featuring a $225 million base with a $50 million accordion option. The facility marks the renewal and replacement of the company’s existing credit facility.

Rabobank, a global financial firm providing wholesale and retail banking services, is acting as the Sole Lead Arranger / Bookrunner and Administrative Agent in the syndicate. Natixis, the second largest bank in France, has been awarded the role of Syndication Agent. A-Mark intends to use the credit facility proceeds for the purchase of precious metals from suppliers and for general operating cash flow purposes.

“This facility meets our current liquidity requirements and, if needed, provides additional capacity, so that we are well positioned to realize our full earnings potential when we see increases in market volatility and customer demand,” said A-Mark CEO Greg Roberts. “We are also pleased to welcome Macquarie Bank Limited as a new participant in our syndication. Their expertise in commodity finance makes them a great addition to the group of high-quality lenders that participate in our credit facility.”

Additional details of the credit facility agreement are available in the company’s current report on Form 8-K, to be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission by no later than August 24, 2017.
